Turathy Photography Competition In Egypt and Countries of the Islamic World

1. Introduction:

The countries of the Islamic world have a rich architectural and urban heritage that bears witness to an ancient and long-established civilization whose impact spanned over centuries. This abundant heritage left an indelible architectural and artistic imprint that influenced successive civilizations and became evidence of a unique thought, art and creativity of profound significance

As part of the celebration of Cairo, Culture Capital in the Islamic World, the Egyptian Ministry of Culture, represented by the National Organization for Civilization Coordination, and the Islamic World Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (ICESCO) invite photographers in Egypt and ICESCO Member States to aim their lenses at the architectural heritage of the Organization's Member States<sup>1</sup> and capture its splendor and details to create artistic photographs that highlight its civilizational dimension. Photographers are encouraged to lay particular emphasis on heritage sites and areas that reflect the distinguished architectural styles of a particular era, spontaneous architecture in a local environment or one that is unique and rare, buildings and sites relating to national history, historical milestones and personalities, as well as unique urban areas of outstanding value that are characterized by unique urban fabric and public spaces, focusing on their artistic details according to the entrant's vision and the need to document these sites to contribute to their safeguarding and valorization.

2. Objective of the Competition:

The competition aims to encourage photographers in the Islamic world to monitor and document heritage buildings and areas in Cairo as well as in cities in countries of the Islamic world that are Members of ICESCO through a creative vision. It also seeks to rediscover the architectural and urban heritage and cast light on its splendor and details, thus increase awareness of the importance of architectural and cultural heritage preservation in Egypt and the Islamic world.

3. Sections:

The competition falls into two sections:

Section One: Urban and Architecture Heritage in Cairo– Open to Egyptian photographers and those interested in the monitoring and documentation of Cairo's heritage buildings and areas.

Section Two: Urban and Architecture Heritage in the Cities of Islamic World– Open to photographers from all the other Members States of ICESCO, who are interested in the monitoring and documentation of heritage buildings and areas in various cities.
